

Play to Win

Meet San José State University's new football coach Mike MacIntyre. "Coach Mac" spent five seasons in the NFL coaching defensive backs with the New York Jets (2007) and Dallas Cowboys (2003-06) working for legendary coach Bill Parcells. He was named a 2009 American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and was recently Duke University's defensive coordinator.

Success requires heart, pride, teamwork and a can-do attitude to win on and off the field. Coach Mac's locker room speech will inspire and motivate you to succeed in your game plan for life.
